Sensory Bottles

Try making different sensory bottles and have them available for difficult transition times.

Make a variety with rice, sand, corn etc. and have one special object that the child has to find—like a penny or a special key.

City of Stratford Children's Resource Consultant Program