Attention Game -
What's in the Sock?

Identifying objects with just your fingers is a skill that will absorb children's interests.

Materials: One clean sock and a variety of household objects (pencil, comb, glue bottle, spoon etc.)

Directions: Hide the object inside the sock and have children guess what it is, or have them feel from the outside only. Vary according to children's ages.